Whitehall, August 24, 1789.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that various Riots and Disturbances broke out on or about the 29th Day of July last, and continued for several successive Days, in the Town and Neighbourhood of Wrexham, in the County of Denbigh; in the Course of which several Waggons were stopped and plundered, Boats destroyed, and Corn forcibly taken and sold for less than the current Price, by some evil-disposed Person or Persons unknown.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the unlawful Proceedings abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof:

And, as a further Encouragement, His Majesty is also pleased to offer a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

W. W. GRENVILLE.

Navy-Office, August 6, 1789.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, That on Wednesday the 26th of this Month, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as may be willing to supply His Majesty's several Yards with Tallow and Train Oil
